FURTHER

To facilitate the building, enlargement, and maintenance of A.D. 1881,
Reformatory Institutions in Ireland.

WHEREAS it is desirable to create additional facilities for the provision and improvement of reformatories in Ireland :

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal,
5 and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same as follows ; (that is to say,)

1. It shall be lawful for the grand jury of any county, county of a city, or county of a town, if they shall think fit, at any assizes, or for the town councils of the boroughs of Dublin, Limerick, and
10 Cork, to contribute such sums of money, to be raised off such county or borough, and upon such conditions as such grand jury or town council may think fit, towards the alteration, enlargement, or rebuilding of a certified reformatory, or towards the establishment or building of a school intended to be a certified reformatory, or 15 towards the purchase of any land required for the use of an existing reformatory, or for the site of any school intended to be a reformatory school.

Power to grand juries and certain town councils to contribute towards building, &c. reformatories.

2. Any grand jury and the town councils of Dublin, Limerick and Cork, may, with the approval of the chief secretary to the Lord
20 Lieutenant, borrow money or give security for the repayment of money borrowed or to be borrowed for the purpose of defraying or contributing towards the expense of altering, enlarging, or rebuilding of a certified reformatory, or towards the establishment or building of a school intended to be a certified reformatory, or towards the 25 purchase of any land required for the use of an existing reformatory, or for the site of any school intended to be a reformatory school.

Power to grand juries, &c. to borrow money to build, &c. reformatories.

3. Any moneys borrowed, or for repayment of which security may be given under this Act, may be charged on any county rate or borough rate levied by the grand jury or town council borrowing
30 or giving security, or on any property belonging to such town

Made of security.

Principal as well as interest to be charged.

4. When any grand jury or town council borrows or gives security for any money under this Act, they shall charge the rates or property out of which the moneys borrowed or secured are payable not only 5 with the interest of the moneys so borrowed or secured, but also with the payment of such principal sum as will secure the repayment of the whole sum borrowed within thirty-five years.

Incorporation of clauses of Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845.

5. The clauses and provisions of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, with respect to the borrowing of money on mortgage 10 or bond, and the accountability of officers, and the recovery of damages and penalties, so far as such provisions may be applicable to the purposes of this Act, shall be incorporated herewith.

Provisions as to notice by grand jury.

6. Not less than two months previous notice of the intention of such grand jury or town council to take into consideration the 15 making of a contribution, and the borrowing or securing of money under the provisions herein-before contained, at a time and place to be mentioned in such notice, shall be given by advertisement in some one or more newspaper or newspapers circulating within such county or borough, and also in the manner in which notices relating 20 to business to be transacted by such grand jury or town council is usually given.

Provision as to notice by town council.

7. When such contribution or such borrowing or securing of money is proposed to be made by the town council of a borough, the order for the contribution shall be made at a special meeting of 25 the council.

Provision as to certificate of reformatory.

8. Such contribution shall not be levied, nor shall any contract for borrowing or securing money under the provisions herein-after contained be entered into, unless or until such reformatory is certified under the 4th section of the statute 31 & 32 Vict. c. 59, and 30 in case the certificate referred to in the last-mentioned section shall have been withdrawn, such contribution shall not be levied, nor shall any such contract be entered into after such withdrawal, unless or until such reformatory shall be again certified under the said 4th section of the statute 31 & 32 Vict. c. 59. 35

Power to Commissioners of Public Works to make loans.

9. In addition to purposes for which loans may be made under Acts already in force, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland, subject to such rules and regulations as may from time to time be made by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to make loans in such cases as the said Commis- 40 sioners of Public Works may judge expedient for any of the purposes for which grand juries or town councils are by the provisions of this Act permitted to contribute or borrow or secure the repayment of money: Provided always, that the amount of any such loan shall not exceed five thousand pounds. A.D. 1881.

10. Every loan which shall be made under the provisions of this Act shall be repaid by the repayment to Her Majesty of an annual sum of five pounds for every one hundred pounds of such loan from time to time advanced, and so on in proportion for any lesser amount, and to be payable for the term of thirty-five years, to be computed from the date of the advance in respect of which such annual sum shall be charged, such annual sum to be repaid by equal half-yearly payments on the fifth day of April and tenth day of October in every year during the said term of thirty-five years, with such apportionments, if any, as may be necessary in respect of the first and last of such payments: Provided always, that the amount of such annual sum may by agreement, and with the sanction of Her Majesty's Treasury, be increased to such amount as will repay the sum so advanced sooner than the said period of thirty-five years herein-after appointed. Loans to be repaid by annuity.

11. All lands upon which any buildings or erections may stand which shall be altered, enlarged, or rebuilt, or established, or built, or which shall have been purchased wholly or partly by means of a loan under this Act, and all such buildings and erections shall be deemed to be and shall be well charged with the payment of such rentcharge, and that in priority to all charges and incumbrances affecting the same, save and except quit rents and rentcharges in lieu of tithes, and except all charges prior in date (if any) existing under any of the Acts mentioned in the schedule to this Act: Provided always, that in case such lands or buildings shall be held under any grant or demise, nothing herein contained shall prejudice or affect the right of the grantor or lessor in any such grant or demise or of any superior grantor or lessor.

12. When any loan shall be made under this Act by the Commissioners of Public Works, the said Commissioners, if they think fit, may insure against damage by fire all buildings and erections then or thereafter standing or being on the lands or premises charged with such loan, such insurance to be effected in such insurance office or company and in such sum of money, not exceeding the amount of such loan as the said Commissioners shall from time to time direct, and the said Commissioners shall keep on foot such insurance as aforesaid, and all premiums paid thereon by the said Commissioners shall be deemed to be included in all charges and securities whereby repayment of such loan shall be secured, and Insurance of premises subject to loan.

A.D. 1861. shall be forthwith recoverable in like manner as any instalment of the rentcharge payable in respect of such loan.

Commissioners to make an order.

13. The repayment of every loan which shall be made under the provisions of this Act shall be secured by an order of the said Commissioners of Public Works under their common seal, and, if 5 they require it, by the further security of at least three persons, the sufficiency and solvency of which persons shall be made out to the satisfaction of the said Commissioners, and by such security as any grand jury or town council may, under the provisions enabling such grand juries and town councils to borrow, or give security for the 10 repayment of money, agree upon with the said Commissioners, all such securities to be subject to such conditions as the said Commissioners shall deem to be proper; and every such order shall set forth the amount of such loan, the names of the persons to whom or on whose application and on whose security the same has been 15 made, and a description of the lands, premises, and other securities charged therewith. In all cases when the said Commissioners shall have made any such order they shall execute a duplicate thereof under their common seal, and forthwith cause the said duplicate order to be lodged with the registrar of deeds in the office for the registry 20 of deeds in the city of Dublin, and the said registrar and his and their assistants, deputies, or other officers shall register the same in the same manner as any deeds or instruments are registered in the same office, and shall enter a memorial thereof in the abstract books and indexes of and relating to memorials registered and kept in the said 25 office, and shall return such registry in any search made in such registry office: Provided always, that no fees shall be payable in respect of such registration.

Mortgage, bonds, &c. exempt from stamp duty.

14. No order, mortgage, bond, obligation, security, contract, agreement, or other instrument whatever, executed under the 30 provisions of this Act, or any memorial thereof for registration, shall be liable to any stamp duty whatever.

Provisions of former Acts to apply.

15. Except as by this Act expressly provided, all the powers, provisions, matters, and things in the Acts specified in the schedule to this Act annexed, or any of them, contained or referred to and 35 relating to the security for and the repayment and recovery of loans under the provisions of the same, shall be deemed to apply to all loans made under this Act, and to the security for repayment and recovery of the same, in like manner in every respect as if such loans were made under the authority of the said Acts, or any of 40 them.

16. This Act and the Acts specified in the schedule to this Act annexed shall be read together and construed as one Act, save so far as the provisions of this Act may be inconsistent with the provisions of the aforesaid Acts, or any of them.
